Office Etiquette! Cube Manners, Email Grammar and Cell Time

November 19, 2008
Presented by Amy DiBlasi
Columbus State Community College

What is privacy anymore? When was the last time you had a "private conversation" at work? Has "CubeWorld" got you down? Learn how to keep things in perspective. Find out how to handle those delicate situations that arise; a co-worker is sharing too much information in your not so private cube, and when to answer your cell phone. Also learn when it's okay to use "netlingo" in an e-mail, and when you need to keep it formal.
